

Exercise 6

a) Read the whole interview:

<https://www.nationalgeographic.com/culture/article/pk-mahanandia-cycle-india-sweden-love-untouchable>

b) Write conditional sentences about the information in the interview (pay attention to words in bold):

1. He met a wealthy Swedish woman and his life changed.

If PK _____ a wealthy Swedish woman, his life
_____.

2. I believed strongly in the prophecy, and now I know that everything is planned on this planet.

PK _____ sure that everything is planned if he _____ strongly in the prophecy.

3. My grandfather told me a man called Valentine Ball visited my village in the 1880s and wrote a book, Jungle Life in India, which inspired Rudyard Kipling.

If Valentine Ball _____ PK's village he probably _____ "Jungle Life in India".

4. I eventually got a scholarship from Orissa to attend the College of Art, which was started by the British in 1942.

If PK _____ a scholarship, he _____
the College of Art.

5. Valentina Tereshkova was invited to India by Indira Gandhi. I saw her one day in the road, where they were escorting her.

If Valentina Tereshkova _____ to India by Indira Gandhi, PK _____ her that day.

6. I ended up doing 10 portraits of Valentina and appeared on TV. Overnight, I became famous in Delhi.

If PK _____ 10 portraits of Valentina Tereshkova, he _____ on TV and he _____ famous in Delhi.

7. "If you don't believe me," PK said. "I can give you my horoscope. You will become my wife."

If Charlotte _____ PK, she _____ his wife.

8. "I said we'd go to his home village. I followed my heart. There, I met his father, brothers, and sister."

If Charlotte _____ to PK's home village, she _____ his family.

9. So I sold everything I owned and bought a bicycle.

If PK _____ everything he owned, he _____ able to buy a bicycle.

10. Interviewer — You've been happily married to Charlotte for more than 40 years. Please share with us your secret for a happy marriage.

PK — When I enter the house, I park my ego outside. When you park your ego outside, on the inside of the house there is only openness.

PK _____ happily married to Charlotte for more than 40 years if he _____ his ego outside every time he enters his house.