

bond

a relationship between people or groups based on shared feelings, interests, or experiences.

suffered

to undergo or feel pain or distress

intruder

a person who enters a
building, grounds,
without permission

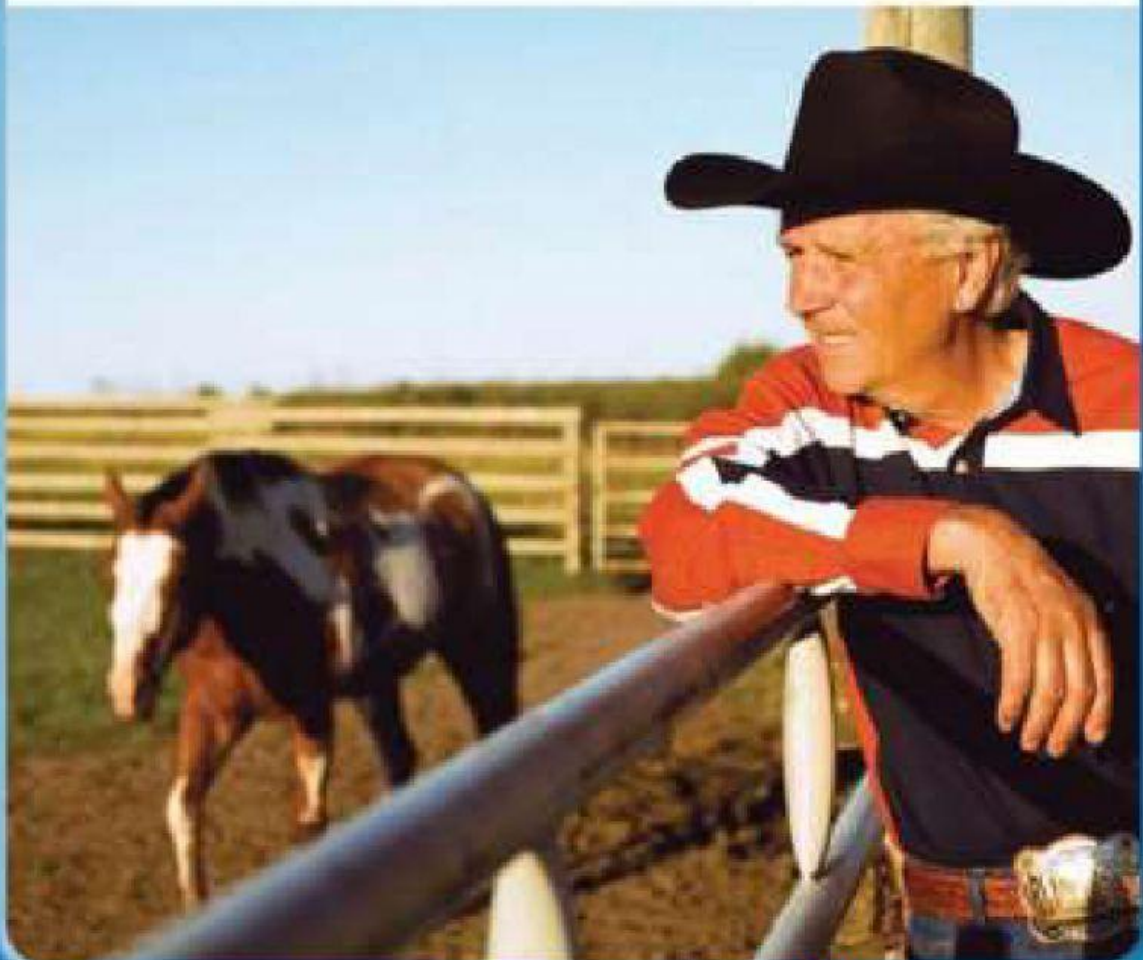

companion

a person who is frequently in the company of

enclosure

something that encloses, as a
fence or wall

inseparable

incapable of being
separated, parted,
or disjoined

charged

intense; impassioned

chief

the head or leader of an organized body of people; the person highest in authority

exhausted

drained of strength or energy

