

Writing Mixed Skill Review 4

Directions: Read each sentence. Select the correct word in the sentence to avoid using a double negative.

- 1.) The singers weren't no/any good this year.
- 2.) We didn't do no/any dances at the wedding.
- 3.) I can't find that map anywhere/nowhere.
- 4.) You can't hear anything/nothing in this auditorium.
- 5.) I feel like I don't have any/no friends.

Directions: Select the correct pronoun for each sentence.

- 6.) Mrs. Davis gave us/we a different assignment.
- 7.) She asked I/me to tell a funny story.
- 8.) Seth brought a book of jokes for she/her to read to the class.
- 9.) She thanked they/them.
- 10.) Dana acted out a story with him/he.

11.) Directions: Select the THREE sentences in which commas are used correctly.

I wanted to buy some balloons, a cake, and some ice cream for the party.	Easter is on Sunday, April 17, 2022.
We went to visit the park the museum, and the movie theater this weekend.	Memorial Day is on Monday May, 30, 2022.
Tom, Kevin, and, Abby all studied volcanoes last year.	My favorite animals are bears, tigers, and dogs.

Directions: Select the correct adjective or adverb for each sentence.

- 12.) Mom calm/calmly removed the boiling pot from the stove.
- 13.) The teacher spoke loud/loudly to the students.
- 14.) Mika quiet/quietly walked to the kitchen.
- 15.) The happy/happily man drove to the restaurant.
- 16.) The boy excited/excitedly opened his birthday present.