ADVANTAGE 1. LISTENING UNIT 5

MONOLOGUE

You are going to hear five students talking about relationships. Read the sentences below. Which relationship is each student discussing – family, romance or friends? Choose the correct answer.

1. My parents are going to live in Canada for a year because of my dad's job, but I've decided to stay here in London.

2. A lot of people say that it's impossible for a boy and a girl to be just friends, but Jenna and I have been close friends for years.

3. My brother and I always shared a room, and it wasn't easy.

4. We fell in love, and when the time came for me to go home, we didn't want things to end.

5. When I was younger, I had lots of friends, but now I feel less confident.

Listen to the students. Which student (1-5) mentions the following? There are three extra sentences. Choose the correct answer.

1. I'm starting to appreciate what I have.
2. I'm learning about how others think.
3. One of my relationships is changing.
4. I'm worried about not having enough freedom.
5. My difficult situation has unexpected advantages.
6. I think my friends are jealous of me.
7. I'm not as happy as I imagined I would be.
8. I have more friends than I did in the past.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Listen again and decide if the following sentences are true (T) or false (F). Choose the correct answer.

1. Student 1: This is the first time the girl is sleeping at her grandparents' house.
2. Student 2: The type of relationship that the boy is discussing is considered unusual.
3. Student 3: The boy's brother didn't feel the same way he did.
4. Student 4: The girl is taking her friends' advice.
5. Student 5: The boy was happy with his social life when he was younger.

LIVEWORKSHEETS