

SOCIAL STUDIES YEAR 6
CHAPTER 4: PEOPLE OF BRUNEI

A. Fill in the blanks.

Tangah	music	Limbang	Cloth-weaving	water	Makan taun
black	funerals	Perlawanan Gasing	artisans	wedding	Top spinning
harvests	Jong Sarat	Basuh Kaki	similar	Tua	Adau Gayoh
stone	Tree bark	Well-wishes	respect	Bisayas	handicraft manners	beads	relationships	Sigar	Good luck	Bongsu

1. The Brunei Malays are famous for their traditional _____. The most well-know and famous is the _____.
2. Good _____ and _____ for elders is very important. They have respectful terms of address.
 - a. _____ is used to address eldest, uncle and aunty.
 - b. _____ is used for middle uncles and aunties.
 - c. _____ us used to address their youngest uncle or aunty.
3. The Kedayans have a traditional festival called _____. It is a ceremony to celebrate good _____ and to builds strong _____ in the village.
4. Special food and gifts would be prepared for guests and traditional games such as _____ or _____ competitions were held among the community.
5. The Muruts mean wear colourful head gear called _____ as well as vests made from _____. Women wear _____ costumes decorated with colour _____.
6. In Tutong there is a special traditional wedding ceremony called the _____.
7. The "Basuh Kaki" ceremony, the married couple's feet are placed on top of sharpening _____ and machete. _____ is then poured on their feet to bless them with _____ and _____.
8. The Dusuns have a great love and passion for their music. Their _____ and dances are played in all ceremonies, from births to _____ and to sad events such as _____.
9. They have a harvest festival called _____ which is celebrated every year on 1st May.
10. The _____ live mainly in the Brunei-Muara District near the border of the _____ District in Sarawak. They have cultures and languages almost _____ to the Dusun people.
11. The Belait people also very skilled _____ and are able to use their traditional skills to produce _____, textiles, handbags, lamps, home utensils and even modern items with traditional designs.