

INSTITUTO SUPERIOR TECNOLÓGICO RIOBAMBA

ENGLISH B1.2

UNIT 3: I WISH IT WERE THE WEEKEND.

Second and third conditional

Exercise 1: Choose the best option to finish the sentences: Second conditional

1. If I had a raincoat, I would get wet / I wouldn't get well.
2. If Joe earned enough money, he would buy a new flat / he couldn't buy a new flat.
3. If the weather was good, we would go to the beach / we wouldn't go to the beach.
4. The teacher would explain the lesson again if the students understood it / if the students didn't understand it.
5. If I were you, I wouldn't smoke so much / I wouldn't give up the smoking.
6. I would go on a diet if the doctor told me to do so / if I didn't have to.
7. If I could choose anywhere in the planet to go on holiday, I would go to Ibiza / I would went to Ibiza.
8. If I had more free time, I would spend it with my family / I spent it with my family.

Exercise 2: Complete the following sentences with the third conditional. Do not use contraction for the negative verbs:

1. If Elizabeth (not/lose) her job as a sales representative in Madrid, she (not/move) to Munich.
2. If he (not/move) to Germany, she (not/find) a job in a new company.
3. If she (not/find) a job in the new company, she (not/meet) Johnny.
4. If she (not/meet) Johnny, they (not/fall) in love.
5. If Brad's alarm clock (ring) on time, he (have) time to have breakfast at home.
6. If he (have) breakfast and home, he (feel) more relaxed.
7. If he (feel) more relaxed, he (not/drive) so fast.
8. If he (drive) slowly, he (see) the "STOP" sign.

Tchr: Myrian Quigla Lara