Make request sentences with "could you/ would you."

Ex: You want the window closed.
Could you close the window please?

1. You want to use the computer.
   .....
2. You want the door opened.
   .....
3. You want to drink some water.
   .....
4. You want to use the telephone
   .....
5. You want to borrow your friend's book.
   .....
6. You want a sandwich.
   .....
7. You want your teacher to speak slower.
   .....
8. You want help to carrying your books.
   .....
9. You want to sit down.
   .....
10. You want to go to the zoo.
    .....

Fill in the blanks with "Could you / would you?" or "Can you / May I?"

1. ..... have a slice of pizza, please?
2. ..... tell me the time, please?
3. ..... borrow your car, please?
4. ..... lend me your book, please?
5. ..... help me with the dishes, please?
6. .....see the menu, please?
7. ..... use your computer, please?
8. ..... take me to the shopping mall, please?

Choose the correct one.

1. X : ...?
   Y: I'm afraid, you can't. She is out now.
   A. Could I have a sandwich?
   B. Could I speak to Jenny?
2. You are in a train station. You want a ticket. What do you say?
   A. Could I have a ticket to Bandung?
   B. Could you have a ticket to Bandung?
3. X : ...?
   Y: Of course. That's a good idea.
   A. Could you come and have some tea?
   B. Could you stop talking, please?
4. You want to read a magazine. What do you say to your friend?
   A. Could I give you a magazine?
   B. Can I have your magazine?
5. A: Can we play on the grass?
   B: I'm sorry ...
   A. you can't.
   B. you can.
6. Can you lend me your book?
   A. Yes, of course
   B. I'm afraid you can't.
7. Could you give me your pencil?
   A. No, thanks.
   B. Certainly.
8. You are in a train station. You want a ticket. What do you say?
   A. Could I have a tomato?
   B. Would you have a ticket to Surabaya?
   C. Could you have a ticket to Surabaya?
   D. Could I have a ticket to Surabaya?

LIVEWORKSHEETS