English Exercise Chapter 10 "Suffixes"

❖ Fill in the blanks with an appropriate word from the box and then put the word in the space provided!

musician runners winner reflection composer

After the mini-marathon had ended and the last few _____ had staggered into the stadium, the closing ceremony for Sports Day began. Justin, our star _____ and the _____ of the song for the day started the music. The words were a _____ of the spirit of the events. With the _____ leading the parade, we marched into the field, singing Justin's song.

dramatic artist American

Joseph Raphael is an _____ _____ known for his brightly coloured paintings of nature and landscapes. However, in his portrait of his son, he took a different approach. What a _____ portrait it is!

immediately direction windowless imitation

From every _____ Lyddie could hear the shrill voices of girls calling to one another. Someone on another floor was doing an _____ of a rooster. Lyddie was up _____ dressing quickly in the _____ attic of the inn.

Locker championship players

We had practised and practised until it ran out of our ears. We were ready to win the _____. We had never seen the other team play but Sam said that he knew some of the _____ and they were good. We all shook hands in the _____ room and then went out.

LIVEWORKSHEETS