

Where do people work?

Choose the right place:

university bank post office bus station town hall
sports centre tourist office supermarket fire station

1. This is the place where you buy food:
2. This is the place where you can study a degree:
3. This is the place where people take a bus:
4. This is the place where you can keep your money:
5. This is the place where tourists get information:
6. This is the place where you can buy stamps and post letters:
7. This is the place where local employees work:
8. This is the place where firefighters work:

Complete the sentences:

works with children in school; does experiments; cooks delicious food; looks after animals; fights fires and rescues people

A chef is the person who

A firefighter is the person who

A vet is the person who

A scientist is the person who

A teacher is the person who

Read and answer:

J.K. Rowling is one of the most popular British writers. She is the author of the much-loved series of seven Harry Potter novels, published between 1997 and 2007. The first book in the Harry Potter series "Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone" was an immediate success. The book received numerous awards, including the British Book Award.

Harry Potter

What's J.K. Rowling job?

How many Harry Potter novels has she written?

What's the name of her first Harry Potter novel?

Write the name of one of the awards she has received.