

metaphor = saying one thing is something else

Arnold uses a metaphor to describe Joey. Explain: _____

_____

He's a force of nature!... a big storm sweeping down...

simile = compare 2 things using the words "like" or "as"

(NOTE– If you don't see the words "like" or "as," it's not a simile!)

Here are 3 similes L.B. uses to describe Joseph's size:

"looked _____"

moved "like _____"

hand "as _____"

He also uses a simile to describe Joseph's voice: "_____"

L.B. notices Joseph's character, too. He feels that Joseph's touch is "gentle." He sees that Joseph offers to help without being asked. He hears that Joseph came to thank him. Tell 3 character traits that you can infer about Joseph from these behaviors. 1) He is _____. 2) He is _____. 3) He is _____.

L.B. reveals more of his character, too. For example, in his daydreams about telling his parents about his money, he starts by saying, "I have--no, we have-something..."

What does he mainly want to do with his money? _____

What does this say about his character? He is _____. Also, he _____."

Analyze the title of the chapter. "Resolution" means _____, and one "conflict" that needs to be resolved is _____.

At the end, another conflict is _____.

Economic means about _____. Policy tells how to _____ _____. Paulsen chose this title because in this chapter what happens?

_____

PREDICT

How many of your predictions for this chapter were correct? ____

What do you think will happen in the next chapter?

1) I predict _____ because _____.
2) I predict _____ because _____.
3) I predict _____ because _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS