

The Human Skeleton

Standard: Description of the main structures of the human skeleton in relation to: functions of support, form, protection, and movement.

Instructions: Drag and drop the skeleton structures in the correct place.

ribs

pelvis

skull

Instructions: Match the structures with the correct characteristics and pictures.

It protects the bowels.

It protects the brain.

It protects the lungs
and the heart.

