Smells like you've got a text

We experience so much of today's world through smartphones and computers, but only in an audio-visual way. You can see and hear, but not much else. What about our other senses – do they need to ¹? A computer scientist, Adrian David Cheok, is asking the same question. He hasn't been ² by the limitations of the online world. He's been ³ new ways of sending sense messages over the internet. A new device called Scentee has been developed that allows you to send a smell message! The device connects to an app on your smartphone and the smell is activated when opening a text. Professor Cheok is also developing ways of ⁴ touch and taste messages

..... using digital transmission. Who knows how quickly these ideas will ⁵ but just think how your sense of smell, touch and taste could ⁶ your whole online experience.
