

Fill in the gaps with the correct word, "like" or "as."

1. She acts if she knew everything.
2. I hate seeing myself in photos. I look fat as a whale!
3. What's wrong? You look you've just lost your best friend.
4. I'm sure he felt an idiot after he made that stupid remark.
5. you know, it's Saint Patrick's Day tomorrow, so you should all wear green.
6. I went home early the other day, I wasn't feeling well.
7. Spanish is just Portuguese, so you should have no trouble learning it.
8. The kids were all dressed up ghosts for Halloween.
9. She has red hair and freckles, just Pippi Longstocking.
10. How can you drink this? It smells turpentine!
11. My uncle works a sheet metal polisher at the steel plant.
12. expected, there was a huge post-game traffic jam near the stadium.
13. When he fell, he hit the ground a ton of bricks.
14. I understand you perfectly, so you don't have to talk to me if I were a child.
15. What language is this? It sounds Russian.
16. The passengers waved goodbye the bus pulled away.
17. You need to modernize your look. You dress someone from Victorian times.
18. All the boys here ask their barber for the same haircut their favorite soccer player.
19. You're late usual! If you keep this up, you're going to lose your job.
20. "Do I say!" shouted the child's father angrily.