

Our lives rely on social media more than we think

SUMMARY

alert

concern

estimate

key

livelihood

malfunction

rely

- A. People were about their loved ones as they couldn't reach them.
- B. Migrants travelling to the US couldn't share information with each other, such as safe places to sleep.
- C. People in Haiti weren't able to one another about gang violence.
- D. One small business owner'sdepends on social media. She that the outage cost her thousands of dollars because potential customers were not able to book her services during that time.
- E. Many entrepreneurs couldn't on Facebook and Instagram to promote their services.
- F. Some people thought that their phones were