Listening 3.3 (Roadmap B1 pre)

Listen to the conversation between Alan and Beth. Which of these things are they discussing?

- work
- travel
- family
- friends they have in common
- free-time activities
- films they've seen

Listen again. Who asks these questions, Alan (A) or Beth (B)?

1 What have you been doing since I last saw you?
2 Have you been anywhere exciting?
3 So, what about you? How's your work going?
4 And what about your brother Dave, what's he been doing?
5 Have you seen Joanne recently?
6 Have you been doing anything else interesting lately?

Can you match the answers to the questions?

a I've been travelling quite a lot for work.
b He's been studying hard for his final exams for months. The bad news is, he and his girlfriend split up two months ago.
c I've been taking Spanish lessons! A friend has been helping me with my studies.
d She's been very busy getting ready for the wedding.
e I went to New York for work last month.
f My boss has been trying to persuade me to move to the Mexican office for ages. I've just accepted the job.
