

1

My home

Grammar start

There are some shops. There aren't any farms.

1 Listen, say and point.

farm

lake

mountains

museum

river

town

village

near

2 Listen and read.

I'm Sam. I'm from a big town.
There are some museums and shops.
There are two rivers.
There aren't any mountains near my town.

I'm Matt. I'm from a small village.
There are some mountains and some farms near my village.
There aren't any shops.

4

There are some... / There aren't any...

3 Look and colour.

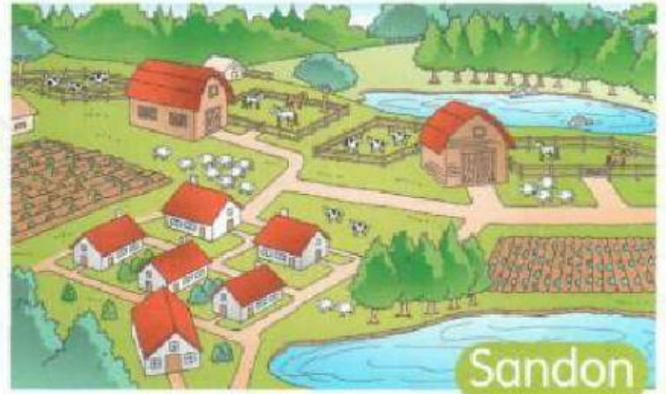

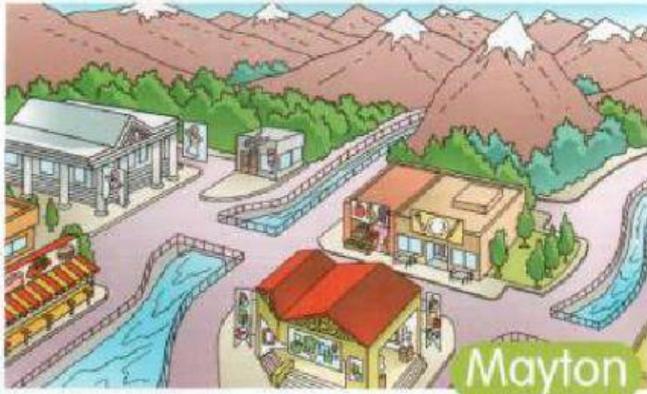

+	-
There <input type="text" value="are some"/> shops.	There <input type="text" value="aren't any"/> shops.
There <input type="text" value="are some"/> farms.	There <input type="text" value="aren't any"/> farms.

4 Look and circle the correct word.

- a There are some / aren't any museums.
- b There are some / aren't any shops.
- c There are some / aren't any farms.
- d There are some / aren't any lakes.
- e There are some / aren't any mountains.
- f There are some / aren't any restaurants.

1 Read and ✓ or X.

- a There are some rivers in Mayton.
- b There aren't any museums in Mayton.
- c There are some farms in Mayton.
- d There are some shops in Sandon.
- e There aren't any mountains in Sandon.
- f There aren't any lakes in Sandon.

2 Look at the pictures. Write are some or aren't any.

- a There are some farms in Sandon.
- b There _____ mountains near Mayton.
- c There _____ shops in Sandon.
- d There _____ lakes near Mayton.
- e There _____ shops in Mayton.
- f There _____ museums in Sandon.