International School of Monterrey

Reading Trimester __ __th Grade Vocabulary U27

Name	Date List #:
27	Connections to READING
Complete the Analogies 1.	mountainous tremendous courageous industrious continuous gargeous wondrous nutritious cautious precious fabulous jealous glorious obvious ledious curious nervous furious sludious various
3.	Complete the Analogies  Write a spelling word to complete each analogy.
4.	Simple is to elaborate as unattractive is to
5.	Indifferent is to enthusiastic as laxy is to
6.	Miserable is to wretched as wholesome is to      Wirtue is to virtuous as glary is to
Make Inferences 7.	5. Grace is to gracious as wonder is to  6. Miniature is to finy as valuable is to
8,	Make Inferences
9.	Write the spelling ward that completes each sentence.  7. A line of cars stretched as far as the eye could see.  8. He was with me for forgetting to pick him up on time.  9. She does not study on weekends, yet she is very  10. I enjoy types of movies, but I prefer action films.
10.
11.
12.
13.	11. I am to know where you bought that heavy sweater.
Use Context Clues 14.	Sherman is when we pay aftention to another dog.     Near the sea the land was flat, but inland it was 15.
16.	Use Context Claes
17.	Write spelling words from the box to complete the paragraph.
18.	Most ski resorts rely on the 14. efforts of their nervous
19.	brave ski patrol to keep skiers safe. Ski patrol members are trained to be 15. when moving injured
20.	skiers. They are a 16. help to 17. skiers who need encouragement. Ski patrol members show an 18. tremendou enthusiasm for their job. They say that their job never becomes 19., and they tell some 20. tales of daring obvious