Routines and Exceptions Homework

Use the present simple to describe routines, and the present progressive to talk about what you are doing now.

For example: I usually read at night, but right now I am watching TV.

Kim usually gets up at 6:00 AM, but today she is sleeping late.

Choos	se the best form of each ve	erb to complete each sentence.
1)	Cody usually (walk)	to work, but today he (drive)	_
2)	Teresa often (ride)motorcycle.	her bicycle, but right now she (ride)	her
3)		by bus, but this morning we (take)	the tram.
4)		_ a helicopter, but today he (fly)
5)	They sometimes (take)	a taxi to the supermarket, but today they (drive	e)
	the	eir car.
Write	the correct verb in each bo	ox.
6)	Shelly often (sail)	on a yacht, but right now she (sail)	on a ship.
7)	I sometimes (drive)	my car to the park, but today I (walk)	·
8)	We usually (take)	a train to the city, but today we (drive)	·
9)	Marshall often (ride)	his bike, but today he (ride)	his skateboard.
10) They sometimes (walk)	around the city, but today they (drive)
Your t	urn! Practice talking about	routines and exceptions by writing at least two sente	ences.
11)
12)
13)

