06 April 2022
Year 2
Learning objective:

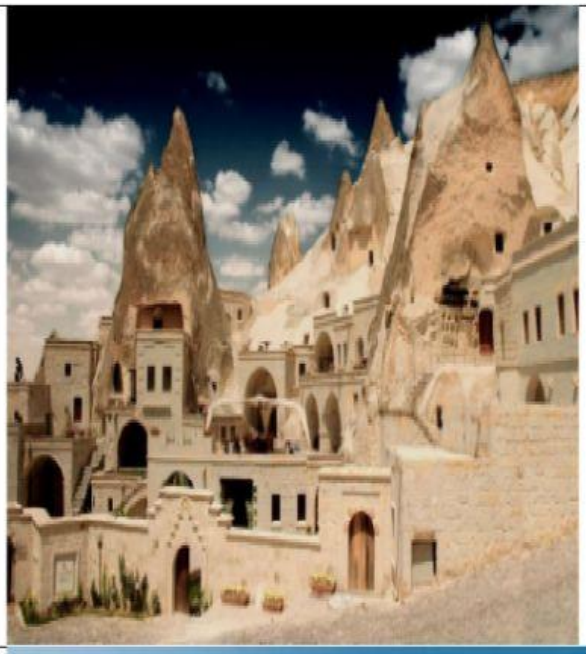

1. Learn different houses in different part of the world.

*Please refer to Learner's book pages 106-107.

Different kinds of homes

Beehive houses In some hot, _____ places, people build houses from _____. They mix mud with _____ and dry _____. These houses are called _____ houses. The thick mud walls keep the homes _____.
Stilt houses In some hot, _____ places, people build houses on _____. Stilt houses are built high above the _____ or _____. The 'stilts' are tree _____. The air blows _____ the houses and keeps them cool.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Cave houses Cave houses are built in _____ and mountains. Some cave homes are very _____. Cave homes are very cool during the _____. They stay warm during the _____.
Skyscrapers In cities all over the world, people live in tall _____ called _____. Skyscrapers are made of _____, _____ and _____. This skyscraper has more than 160 floors and 57 lifts.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. TRUE or FALSE

Look at the text. Is each statement true or false?

1. A beehive house has lots of windows. | True | False |

2. A skyscraper has lots of windows. | True | False |

3. A cave home keeps you warm in winter. | True | False |

4. Stilt houses are built only in cold, dry places. | True | False |

LIVEWORKSHEETS