

Instructions. Identify the correct stress syllable in the homophones below. You need to identify first if the homophone is a noun/adjective or verb:

1. This type of art is abstract

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

2. He abstracts some information from that data.

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

3. Those people have a quite particular accent

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

4. You must accent the content words, not function words.

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

5. May I have your address?

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

6. You must address elderly people as "ma'am or sir"

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

7. That room is just an annex to this building.

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

8. Costa Rica annexed Guanacaste in 1824

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

9. Honesty and commitment are some of their attributes.

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

10. Her success can be attributed to three main factors.

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

11. She is an ally

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

12. I won't ally to that cause.

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

13. Soldiers died in combat

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

14. We have combated the effects of that disaster.

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

15. The pandemic was a compound of pollutions and deforestation.

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

16. Severe drought has compounded food shortages in the region.

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

17. He was awarded because of good conduct.

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

18. This problem conducts us to a bigger one.

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

19. The course compresses two year's training into six intensive months.

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

20. Use a hot compress to heal and relieve your muscles.

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

21. The conflict between Ukraine and Russia is getting worse and worse.

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

22. The two stories just conflicted at the end.

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

23. They were forced into a conscript to that army

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

24. They conscripted people to join the army.

1st syllable	2nd syllable
-----------------	-----------------

25. They signed a contract.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

26. As it cooled, the metal contracted.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

27. I love his use of contrast in his later photographs.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

28. If you contrast some of her early writing with her later work, you can see just how much she improved.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

29. In the US, you drive on the right-hand side of the road, but in the UK the converse applies.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

30. She's so shy that conversing with her can be pretty hard.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

31. He has twice been convicted of robbery/arson.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

32. He is a convict.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

33. There is a decrease in rice consumption

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

34. The price of luxurious goods is decreasing

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

35. The Sahara Desert is enormous.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

36. Some soldiers desert from the army.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

37. Her letters are in a yellow envelope.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

38. The entire area was enveloped in fog.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

39. The England Queen had escorts everywhere.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

40. He escorted the King.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

41. She was telling me about her exploits while travelling around Africa.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

42. We need to make sure that we exploit our resources as fully as possible.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

43. The gas exports are in danger because of the war.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

44. Russia exports oil to some Western countries.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

45. This is the extract of that book (summary).

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

46. I extracted the essential oils from the lemon peel.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

47. The country finances are getting better.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

48. The company is financing the education of its employees.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

49. That is just a small fragment of the real story.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

50. That book is fragmented into chapters.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

51. Some kind of music has a negative impact on the youth.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

52. This theory really impacts what others think about evolution.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

53. There has been an increase in oil prices.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

54. A high demand of goods doesn't increase the prices.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

55. these magazines have too many annoying inserts
(= extra loose pages) advertising various products.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

56. Insert the key into the lock.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

57. To make jokes about people's appearance is an insult.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

58. He insults her with his bad manners.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

59. the government will be seeking a fresh mandate from the people.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

60. The UN rush to mandate war totally ruled out any alternatives.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

61. That's a bizarre object.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

62. No one objects when the boss says it is time to go home.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

63. He has an official permit to leave early on Mondays.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

64. Their parents didn't permit them to go to the concert.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

65. I got lots of convenient presents for my birthday party.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

66. I presented the evidence to the judge.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

67. Learning a language must be a committed process.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

68. I am still processing what happened yesterday.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

69. Practice does not make perfect, it makes progress.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

70. Students have progressed a lot.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

71. He was arrested because he is a pervert.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

72. Criminals pervert children's minds.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

73. The produce of flowers is significant in Heredia.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

74. The high temperature produces the Green House Effect.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

75. All the void votes are considered a form of protest

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

76. People are protesting against animal cruelty.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

77. His rampage brought him lots of consequences.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

78. They rampaged the city and caused lots of damage everywhere.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

79. They are a group of rebels who do not agree with the principal's high school system.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

80. Some teenagers rebel against their authoritarian parents.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

81. At the end of the booklet, you have a recap to the main topics.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

82. Let's recap the main ideas of this lesson.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

83. Her recall of things is impressive.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

84. He is recalling some old memories that he thought he had forgotten.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

85. In that restaurant, beverage refill is free.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

86. You are allowed to refill your glass with Coke.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

87. Customers are asking for a refund because they are not satisfied with the service.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

88. The company refunded their money back after their service complaint.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

89. The refuse (material) dumped in the rivers is making animals and people sick.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

90. I refuse to go to the meeting with him.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

91. They are considered rejects in that elite culture.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

92. She rejects the idea of moving in again.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

93. The match replay is now available in Netflix.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

94. Netflix is replaying now that soccer match.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

95. Yesterday lecture was about a quite interesting subject.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

96. In the past, women were subjected to their husbands.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

97. The company will give you a reward only if you answer the survey

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

98. Agents must survey possible customer with a short questionnaire.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

99. He is considered a suspect in that robbery case.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

100. Police suspect of his behavior and attitudes.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

101. Pandemic was a great torment for some.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

102. Don't torment yourself with those thoughts.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

103. Once you are at that hotel, if you do not like it, you might ask for a transfer.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

104. All the products in stock are going to be transferred to the south branch.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

105. Transport in my city is quite efficient.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

106. School drivers must be ultracareful since they transport children, not stuff.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

107. Young people's upsets are going to be trivial one day.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------

108. Robert upsets his boss with his unpunctuality.

1 st syllable	2 nd syllable
-----------------------------	-----------------------------