FRIENDLY

Last week's episode of Friendly was really funny because there was a school trip to the countryside. The teachers were taking their pupils to a forest to camp. On Friday afternoon when they were waiting for the bus outside the school, Jenny arrived with a really big, heavy suitcase. She said that her rucksack wasn't very big and she had lots of equipment.

Examples

Friendly is the name of a song. ___F___

There was a school trip to the countryside. ___T___

Questions

1. They camped in a forest. _____
2. Jenny's suitcase was light. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

On the way to the campsite Sally sat next to the bus driver because she wanted to watch her drive, look at the directions and follow them on her map. When they got to the forest, all five of them had to help Jenny to pull her suitcase across the field to the tent. The ground was too soft and it was really hard work. When they were pulling the suitcase, it fell over again and again.

3. They went to the campsite by bus. _____
4. Jenny sat next to the bus driver to give her the directions. _____
5. Jenny carried her suitcase by herself. _____
6. It was not easy for them to pull the suitcase. _____

It was dinner time when they arrived at the campsite and they were dirty, tired and hungry. Jenny was very surprised when she discovered she couldn't use her hairdryer. Peter was really unhappy because he wanted to cook sausages and beans, but he couldn't. Jim took some peanut butter and jam sandwiches out of his rucksack. Sally had some popcorn and biscuits, and they all laughed when Sue said she was carrying enough cold sushi and chopsticks for everyone! They all agreed that they were eating the strangest camp menu ever!

7. They got to the campsite at dinner time. _____
8. They felt excited and played some games. _____
9. Jenny's hairdryer didn't work. _____
10. Only Sue brought food to the campsite. _____
