1 Read the sentences and write where these people work.	3 Complete the sentences with the words in the box. There are two extra words.
 We sell food, drinks and everything else you need at home. supermarket We open our shop early so that people can buy fresh bread and cakes. People visit me when they need new glasses. The fruit and vegetables that I sell are fresh because they come from local farmers. We have everything you need for school or your office, such as pens, pencils and paper. We sell a wide range of trainers and boots. All colours and sizes. Complete the names of the places. The first letters are given. In our city there is a chemist for your medicines a b where you can get money a f that sells fresh flowers 	afford bargain charity newsagent's receipts refund sale window shopping
	O I would definitely buy this pair of jeans if I could afford it. 1 All customers should keep the for two years. 2 Today is the last day to return this sweater if I want to get a 3 I often shop online – it's easier to pick up a in online shops. 4 There are some great fashion shops in Oxford Street. I can only go there, as I haven't got enough money to buy anything. 5 The pet shop in the High Street is having a You can get two items for the price of one. 4 Read the definitions and match them to the words in the box. There are two extra words. leather brands butcher's denime fashionable post office scruffy vintage shop
3 a pswhere you can buy dog food 4 an eaif you want to buy a house 5 a hc with excellent doctors.	 This is used to make shoes. leather This word describes an untidy or dirty appearance In this place you can buy clothes that were fashionable in the past You come here to post letters or buy stamps This is used to make jeans

5 You can buy all kinds of meat in this place.