

INVITATION

S: Hi, Kevin. What are you doing?

K: Nothing much. Just reading a _____.

S: Oh, great! What kind of story?

K: Benny gave me the _____. It's not for girls. It's about the future. How terrible our life is going to be in 50 years. In the future people are species in danger, machines are catching them to kill. And only the main character, a _____ professor can save the world.

S: Wow! How _____! I love science-fiction!

K: Do you? What books have you read?

S: Mmm... Oh, many. About other planets, and aliens, and robots...

K: Well, I'm going to the _____ now. Would you like to come? We'll find some books for you to read.

S: Great! I'd love to.
