

Quadrilateri

| Poligono                                                                                               | Formule per calcolare il perimetro | Formule inverse       | Formule per calcolare l'area | Formule inversa |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|-----------------------|------------------------------|-----------------|
| Rettangolo | $P = b + \dots$                    | $b = (P : 2) - \dots$ | $A = b \times \dots$         | $b = A : \dots$ |
|                                                                                                        | $P = (b + h) \times \dots$         |                       |                              |                 |
|                                                                                                        | $P = (b \times \dots) + (\dots)$   | $h = (P : 2) - \dots$ |                              | $h = A : \dots$ |

| Poligono | Formule per calcolare il perimetro | Formule inverse | Formule per calcolare l'area | Formule inversa |
|----------|------------------------------------|-----------------|------------------------------|-----------------|
|----------|------------------------------------|-----------------|------------------------------|-----------------|

|                                                                                                      |                                                             |                           |                       |                                                                                  |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------|-----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Quadrato | $P = l \times \dots\dots\dots$$P = l + \dots\dots\dots$ | $l = P : \dots\dots\dots$ | $A = \dots\dots\dots$ | Trovare il numero che moltiplicato per se stesso dia la misura dell'area. |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------|-----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

| Poligono | Formule per calcolare il perimetro | Formule inverse | Formule per calcolare l'area | Formule inversa |
|----------|------------------------------------|-----------------|------------------------------|-----------------|
|----------|------------------------------------|-----------------|------------------------------|-----------------|

|                                                                                                   |                                |                           |                                      |                                      |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------|---------------------------|--------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| Rombo | $P = l + \dots\dots\dots$      | $l = P : \dots\dots\dots$ | $A = (D \times d) : \dots\dots\dots$ | $D = (A \times 2) : \dots\dots\dots$ |
|                                                                                                   | $P = l \times \dots\dots\dots$ |                           |                                      | $d = (A \times 2) : \dots\dots\dots$ |

| Poligono | Formule per calcolare il perimetro | Formule inverse | Formule per calcolare l'area | Formule inversa |
|----------|------------------------------------|-----------------|------------------------------|-----------------|
|----------|------------------------------------|-----------------|------------------------------|-----------------|

|                                                                                                             |                                                               |                                 |                       |                           |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|-----------------------|---------------------------|
| Parallelogramma | $P = (b + l) \times \dots\dots\dots$                          | $b = (P : 2) - \dots\dots\dots$ | $A = \dots\dots\dots$ | $b = A : \dots\dots\dots$ |
|                                                                                                             | $P = (b \times \dots\dots\dots) + (\dots\dots\dots \times 2)$ | $l = (P : 2) - \dots\dots\dots$ |                       | $h = A : \dots\dots\dots$ |

| Poligono | Formule per calcolare il perimetro | Formule inverse | Formule per calcolare l'area | Formule inversa |
|----------|------------------------------------|-----------------|------------------------------|-----------------|
|----------|------------------------------------|-----------------|------------------------------|-----------------|

|                                                                                                               |                                                  |                                                             |                                                                        |                                                               |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|
| Trapezio isoscele | $P = \ell + B +$.....                        | $B = P - (\ell + \dots\dots\dots)$                          | $A =$$(B + b) \times \dots\dots : \dots\dots$                      | $h = \frac{(A \times 2)}{\dots\dots\dots\dots\dots\dots}$     |
|                                                                                                               | $P =$$(2 \times \ell) + b + \dots\dots\dots$ | $\ell = \frac{P - (B + b)}{\dots\dots\dots\dots\dots\dots}$ | $A = \frac{(B + b) \times \dots\dots}{\dots\dots\dots\dots\dots\dots}$ | $B + b = \frac{(A \times 2)}{\dots\dots\dots\dots\dots\dots}$ |