

WORKSHEET
Unit 8: You're My Hero - 1

A. KEY POINTS

Vocabulary (Từ vựng)
	gymnastics	tennis	volleyball	track and field	race
Structure (Cấu trúc)
	patient	strong	exciting	popular	difficult
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Gymnastics is more difficult than volleyball.</li> <li>- Tennis is more popular than table tennis.</li> </ul>

B. PRACTICE

I. Read the definitions and write the words.

gymnastics	volleyball	tennis
—strong	track and field	difficult

0. To describe a person who can carry heavy boxes.

strong

1. In this sport, you can dance and jump

2. In this sport, you can run, jump, or throw.

3. It's a team sport. You throw the ball over a high net.

4. In this sport, you hit the ball over a short net.

5. To describe something not easy.

II. Complete the sentence using comparatives.

Lin: Do you play table tennis at school, Ali?

Ali: No. In my school, tennis is (1) more popular than (popular) table tennis.

Lin: Really? I think table tennis is (2) .....(exciting) tennis.

Ali: It's exciting, but table tennis is (3)..... (difficult) tennis.

Lin: Yes, it can be. My sister's teaching me. She's (4).....(patient) me and she helps me. Look, I can hit the ball really far, now.

Ali: Ow! My nose!

Lin: Oh no! Sorry!

Ali: I think table tennis is (5).....(dangerous) tennis, too!

III. Look and write using comparatives.

0. Rock climbing/ dangerous/ kayaking.

Rock climbing is more dangerous than kayaking.

1. Skating/ exciting/ yoga.

.....

2. Science/ difficult/ Maths.

.....

3. My grandpa/ patient/ my grandma.

.....

4. Track and field/ dangerous/ volleyball.

.....

5. Football/ popular/ volleyball/ my/ in/ school.

.....