REPORTED SPEECH

The teacher ordered the children to look at the blackboard.

Her mother told Sue NOT TO LEAVE her things all over the place.

1. 'Kevin, don't touch my things again' – his brother said.
   Kevin's brother ordered
2. 'Can you lend me your car for the weekend, Mum?' – Cathy asked.
   Cathy asked her mother
3. 'Leave your umbrellas outside the museum, please' – the guide said.
   The guide told us
4. 'Don't park here, sir' – the policeman said.
   The policeman ordered the man
5. 'Could you show me that blue sweater in the shop window, please?' – the woman said.
   The woman asked me
6. 'Will you come with me to Susan's party, John?' – Mary said.
   Mary asked me
7. 'Will you please not come with your dog into the restaurant?' – the waiter said.
   The waiter asked us
8. 'Don't say anything to your parents, ok?' – she said.
   She ordered me
9. 'Send me a copy of the contract, will you?' – the lawyer told Mr. Smith.
   The lawyer told Mr Smith
10. 'Please, show me the photographs' – she said.
    She asked me
11. 'Stop smoking? – the doctor told him.
12. She ordered him
13. 'Don't unlock this door!' – he told his assistant.
    He ordered his assistant

LIVEWORKSHEETS

STATEMENTS - introducing verbs: say, tell, explain, think, etc. ...

Sorry, Mr. Jones isout this morning.

The secretary told me that Mr. Jones was out that morning.

You have to fill in this form and submit it in the office upstairs.

The clerk explained to me that I had to fill in that form and submit it in the office upstairs.

I know the answer.

She said that she knew the answer.

1. 'I think there is a bus at five o'clock' - my brother said.
   My brother said (that)
2. 'She broke the glasses when shewas washing up' – he says.
   He says (that)
3. 'They can't come because they are busy' - Susan said.
   Susan said (that)
4. 'I'll do my homework tomorrow' – thechild told his mother.
   The child told his mother (that)
5. 'The boys are playing in the garden now' - she said.
   She said (that)
6. 'I don't know your new boyfriend' – shetold Sheila.
   She told Sheila (that)
7. 'Mary, your glasses are on the table' –her mother said.
   Her mother said (that)
8. 'Tom is having dinner with us next Saturday' – he said.
   He told us (that)

LIVEWORKSHEETS