

SIMPLE vs CONTINUOUS

Time markers help us to understand when things have happened.

Frequency adverbs show us how often something happens.

- ♦ Present Simple: Always, usually, never, often, every day (month, year), once a week (twice, etc.), on Sunday.
- ♦ Present Continuous: Now, right now, at the moment, today, these days (weeks), this week (month, year), still

A

GRAMMAR

1 Do you remember when to use each tense?

Ice cream melts in the sun.

She's going to Italy next week.

Take a seat, please.

I'm studying right now.

He wakes up at 7:00am every day.

Turn left at the corner.

They prefer tea over coffee.

Her English is getting better.

2 Select the correct answer

He always __ video games.

- a. plays
- b. is playing

They __ dinner right now.

- a. have
- b. are having

She __ a cake today.

- a. buys
- b. is buying

I __ my teeth every day.

- a. brush
- b. am brushing

What are you doing now?

- a. I draw
- b. I'm drawing

What do you usually do after lunch?

- a. I usually wash the dishes
- b. I'm washing the dishes

She always __ after school

- a. studies
- b. is studying

Be quiet. He __ his homework now.

- a. does
- b. is doing

3 Fill in with the correct form of the verb in brackets.

1 ____ you ____ (prefer) tea or coffee? I prefer coffee.

2 What is Lucy doing? She ____ (play) video games.

3 ____ Alonso ____ (live) in Ravello? No, he ____.

4 How often ____ your siblings ____ (go) to the beach?

5 Alex and Sai ____ (get) married this weekend.

6 Where ____ you ____ (go) right now? I ____ (go) to the park.

7 The shop ____ (open) at 8:00am every day.

8 Dorothy usually ____ (take) the bus, but today she ____ (take) a taxi.

B CONJUGATION PRACTICE

1 Add -s, -es, -ies to the verbs in present simple and -ing to the verbs in present continuous.

	Simple	Continuous
 Work
 Dance
 See
 Talk
 Ride
 Do
 Fix
 Enjoy
 Sleep
 Try		