

Change these sentences as follows: Change present to past, present progressive to past progressive, present perfect to past perfect, as in the following examples:

Examples:

It's beginning to snow.

It was beginning to snow.

He's wanted to see the movie for a long time.

He had wanted to see the movie for a long time.

The student is asked to leave.

The student was asked to leave.

1. It's impossible to ride to the top of the hill.
2. It is necessary to pick the cotton by hand.
3. He says he will go to see his friend tomorrow.
4. It's interesting to talk to him.
5. I've told him again and again to study.
6. She always forgets to get bread.
7. He's promised to do the work.
8. He is beginning to tell a story.
9. Yeast is added to flour and water to make leavened bread.
10. They are able to export wheat to other countries.
11. He has learned how to use machinery on his farm.
12. He says that he is going to start threshing tomorrow.
13. I need to get some gasoline.

14. I'm sorry to see you go.
15. She is sent to marry an Indian prince.
16. It isn't easy to produce silk.
17. They have discovered how to make synthetic butter.
18. He often stops to visit his grandmother.
19. Only a few months are allowed to come out of the cocoons.
20. They have called the garage to repair the car.