

FUTURE - BE GOING TO

Usamos BE GOING TO + VERBO para hablar de planes futuros.

Ejemplos:

Yo voy a comprar un libro. → I am going to buy a book.

Él va a comer pasta. → He is going to eat pasta.

Ellas van a quedar en el parque. → They are going to meet in the park.

¡RECUERDA!

El verbo BE puede ser am - is - are dependiendo de cuál sea el sujeto de la frase.

Lee atentamente las tablas y recuerda cómo se forma futuro con el BE GOING TO.

going to: future
(affirmative & negative)

We use to be with going to and a verb to talk about future plans.

going to: future (affirmative)
I	'm		catch a bus.
He / She	's	going to	go fishing.
You / We / They	're		wake up early.

going to: future (negative)
I	'm not		catch a bus.
He / She	isn't	going to	go fishing.
You / We / They	aren't		wake up early.

going to: future
(questions & short answers)

We use to be with going to and a verb to ask and answer questions about future plans.

going to: future (questions)
Am	I		catch a bus?
Is	he / she	going to	go fishing?
Are	you / we / they		wake up early?

going to: future (short answers)
	I	am.
Yes,	he / she	is.
	you / we / they	are.
	I	'm not.
No,	he / she	isn't.
	you / we / they	aren't.

CLICK HERE to watch a VIDEO.