Unusual Statues around the World

I travel a lot for work and for fun. I see a lot of famous landmarks. The Statue of Liberty in New York City is my favorite statue, but here are some unusual statues from my travels.

This statue is called Eating a Biscuit Together. This statue is actually a bench – you can sit on it! It's by artist Ku Bomju, and it's in front of the Bukchon Art Museum in Seoul, Korea. I think it's very funny!

I don't know the artist or name of this statue, but I really like it! It's a statue of a businessman in Los Angeles, California. It's in front of the Ernst & Young Building. I think he has the most stressful job in Los Angeles. Maybe he is an accountant for a movie star!

You can't miss this statue! It's of Charles La Trobe, a famous politician in Australia in the 1800s. The artist's name is Charles Robb. It's at La Trobe University Bundoora in Melbourne, Australia. Do you think his head hurts?

I love this statue! It's called Dromeas II, but people call it The Runner in English. It has a lot of glass plates that make the shape of a runner. The artist is Costas Varotsos. It's in front of the Athens Hilton hotel in Athens, Greece. I think it's the fastest statue in the world, but it's not going far!
