

Reading Comprehension

Let's read the following text about Marcus' experience as a personal shopper

Hello there! My name is Marcus and I'm a personal shopper! Do you know what it is? Let me explain it to you... A personal shopper is a person who works doing the shopping for other people, for example, I am the one who goes to the supermarket for you to buy your monthly grocery list, just as I can go to luxury stores to buy you a beautiful pair of shoes for an elegant dinner.

To hire my service, people have to call me and then deposit me the money that they are going to spend, I buy what they ask for and deliver their purchase with the receipt. My payment is a part of the deposit!

On Christmas, being a personal shopper is really worth it, because people spend a lot of money hiring my service, so they don't have to leave their homes during this holiday!

It may look like a simple and even fun job, but it can be stressful if your customer is a bit indecisive! Also, you don't have coworkers to gossip with 😊
