

Some sentences about EASTER

Write in the correct form of the verb to have or to be

1. Easter _____ (to be) a special holiday for many Australians.

2. The two special days _____ (to be) Good

Friday and Easter Sunday. Easter Monday _____

(to be) also a holiday.

3. Easter _____ (to have) a different date every year.

4. Many shops _____ (to be) not open on Good Friday.

5. Easter _____ (to be) about religion. But for many people Easter _____ (to be) now about chocolate.

6. Children _____ (to be) very excited before Easter. They _____ (to have) a lot of fun finding eggs and eating chocolate.

7. This year the school holidays _____ (to be) at Easter time.

8. Students at schools and some students at TAFE _____ (to have) two weeks' holiday.

9. The first day of Term 2 _____ (to be) 3 May.

10. _____ (to have) a good rest in the holidays.

11. It _____ (to be) also important to keep studying and speaking English in the holidays.

12. _____ (to have) a happy Easter and a good holiday.