Listen and look. There is one example.

Boy: Oh good! No lessons today! We are going to the cinema now with our teacher.

Man: Which teacher?

Boy: Miss Day. She's our favourite teacher!

Man: That's nice for you!

Can you see the answer? Now you listen and write.

Question One

Man: Is the cinema called 'Picture House'?

Boy: Yes, that's right.

Man: I know where it is.

Boy: Yes. It's next to the school.

Question Two

Man: What film is on?

Boy: It's a funny film. Three friends go to a town near the sea.

Man: I know what it's called. It's called 'A nice holiday!'

Boy: Yes. That's it!

Question Three

Man: When is the film?

Boy: It is on in the afternoon.

Man: Good. Then you can have lunch before the film!

Boy: What about going to the restaurant opposite the bus station?

Man: OK, that's a good idea!

Question Four

Boy: What is for dinner?

Man: We can have chicken for dinner.

Boy: Good, it's my favourite food!

Man: OK, you can have a lot then!

Question Five

Boy: Dad, can I go to bed at 10 o'clock?

Man: No. You have school tomorrow.

Boy: Please!

Man: I said 'no'. I don't want you to be tired of your lessons tomorrow.

Boy: But I want to watch my favourite football team on TV

Man: Oh, OK then. But don't tell me you are tired tomorrow!

Now listen to it again.
