

Adjectives After Linking Verbs

REMEMBER THE RULES

- When an adjective comes after the noun it describes, the two are connected by a linking verb.

The sky was dark.

A storm is threatening.

A. Write the linking verbs, then write the adjectives.

- Hurricanes are strong. L A
- A hurricane is dangerous. L A
- The winds are powerful. L A
- The rain is heavy. L A
- During a hurricane, waves are huge. L A
- Flooding is serious. L A
- Damage from a hurricane is costly. L A
- This year the storms were severe. L A
- The hurricane was forceful. L A
- The damage to homes was unbelievable. L A

B. Complete each sentence with an adjective that makes sense.

Choose the noun the adjectives describes

- The clouds were with rain.
- The wind was with tremendous force.
- The storm is near the shore.
- The damage from the wind was
- Storms like this are