

I. Choose the correct option.

- 1 Harriet told me that she has been / had been a stunt performer in a James Bond film.
- 2 I told Andy we are going / were going to the theatre to watch a play that night.
- 3 Brian said to the film director that he had / had had a tattoo done on his neck.
- 4 I told the conductor I can't / couldn't attend the live performance the next day.
- 5 Joshua said that he will / would start working as a fashion model.

II. Rewrite the statements in reported speech.

- 1 'Philip isn't coming to my concert,' said Lucy.
Lucy told us that _____.
- 2 'I like your tennis shoes,' said Marek.
Marek told me that _____.
- 3 'I contacted the film director yesterday' William said.
William said that _____.
- 4 'We can meet outside the cinema at 6:00 p.m.,' Yusuf said to Leila.
Yusuf told Leila that _____.
- 5 'We have played three concerts in this music hall,' said Harold.
Harold told me that _____.

III. Choose the correct option.

- 1 Shakespeare wrote 37 plays / theatres / lines and 154 poems in his rather short lifetime.
- 2 I've got my first acting job! I'm playing a large part / performance / portrait with some really interesting dialogue.
- 3 Please try not to make any noise on the stage until the curtains / tripods / stars open.
- 4 The 2017 film The Dark Tower is based in / at / on a trilogy by Stephen King.
- 5 This new TV series takes place at / in / on England during the 19th century. It's very interesting and historically correct.

IV. Complete the sentences with the missing words.

- 1 Bob Dylan is such a good _____ that he won the Noble Prize for literature.
- 2 A _____ usually only writes for the theatre, not for film or TV.
- 3 Beethoven is my favourite _____ of classical music.
- 4 The _____ of an orchestra helps the musicians stay in time with each other.
- 5 The show was so good that the _____ in the theatre stood up and clapped for over ten minutes.