

An unforgettable reunión

An elderly man got / was getting a letter from his granddaughter living in Canada. She was inviting her grandad to visit her in Ottawa , Canada. In the letter there is / there was a photo of the granddaughter. She wore / was wearing a hat and a fur coat . She said she was going to wear the same clothes for the old man to recognise her.

He soon went / was going to a Travel agency and bought / was buying a plane ticket.

When he flew / was flying he had a wonderful meal and he watched an in-flight movie .

When he arrived / was arriving it snowed / was snowing .
He got off the plane and was going / went to the arrival lounge .

Soon he saw his granddaughter from behind. She didn't look / wasn't looking at him but he knew it was her because she wore / was wearing a hat and a fur coat. He came up to her and touched her shoulder. The woman turned round. What a surprise !!!! It wasn't his granddaughter.

The woman called / was calling the police. She was angry with the old man and said he was disrespectful. Poor grandad , he was getting into trouble.

Suddenly her granddaughter showed up / was showing up and the big mixed up was cleared up.
