

Present Perfect Negative

To make negatives in the present perfect, add "not" after "have" or "has." You can also contract the "have" or "has" with "not"

Examples: I have not studied Japanese. / I haven't studied Japanese.
Erik has not visited France. / Erik hasn't visited France.
The banana has not turned brown yet. / The banana hasn't turned brown yet.
You have not played the piano before. / You haven't played piano before.
They have not called me yet. / They haven't called me yet.

Choose the sentence which shows the correct negative present perfect.

- 1) Toby and Jack / not / visit / Africa. _____
- 2) Rose / not / study / German. _____
- 3) Lance / not / clean / the kitchen yet. _____
- 4) I / not / live / in China before. _____
- 5) We / not / watch / the new show yet. _____

Write each sentence in the negative present perfect.

- 6) Natalie / not / try / sushi before. _____
- 7) James / not / finish / his homework yet. _____
- 8) You / not / receive / the boss's email yet. _____
- 9) They / not / ask / June to play yet. _____
- 10) Eliza / not / learned / to skateboard. _____

Your turn! Practice creating sentences using negatives in the present perfect.

- 11) _____
- 12) _____
- 13) _____
- 14) _____
- 15) _____