Exercise 63. Let's read and write. (Chapters 1 -> 5)

Part I. Read the fairy tale and answer the questions at the end.

Đọc chuyện cổ tích sau và trả lời câu hỏi ở cuối bài.

The Frog Prince

Once upon a time, there was a king with three unmarried daughters. One day while the king was thinking about his daughters' futures, he had an idea. He thought, "I'm going to drop three jewels among the young men in the village center. The men who find the jewels will become my daughters' husbands." He announced his plan to all of the people of his kingdom.

The next day, the king took an emerald, a ruby, and a diamond into the village. He walked among the young men and dropped the jewels. A handsome man picked up the emerald. Then a wealthy prince found the ruby. But a frog hopped toward the diamond and took it. He said to the king, "I am the Frog Prince. I claim your third daughter as my wife."

When the king told Trina, his third daughter, about the Frog Prince, she refused to marry him. She hid from her friends and grew sadder every day. Meanwhile, her two sisters had grand weddings.

Eventually, Trina ran away and went to live in the woods, but she was very lonely and unhappy. One day Trina went swimming in a lake. Trina became tired in the cold water and decided to give up. She didn't want to live anymore. As she was drowning, the frog suddenly appeared and pushed Trina to the shore.

"Why did you save my life, Frog?"

"Because you are very young, and you have a lot to live for."

"No, I don't," said the princess. "I am the most miserable person in the world."

"Let's talk about it," said the frog. Trina and the Frog Prince sat together for hours and hours. Frog listened and understood. He told her about his own unhappiness and loneliness. They shared their deepest feelings with each other.

One day while they were sitting near the lake, Trina felt great affection for the frog. She bent down and kissed him on his forehead. Suddenly the frog turned into a man! He took Trina in his arms and said, "You saved me with your kiss. An evil wizard changed me from a prince into a frog. I needed to find the love of a woman with a truly good heart to set me free. You looked inside me and found the real me."

Trina and the prince returned to the castle and got married. Her two sisters, she discovered, were very unhappy because their husbands treated them poorly. But Trina and her Frog Prince lived happily ever after.
