

What's the weather like?

There are different kinds of weather all around the world. This is because different places have different climates. Let's see what the weather is like around the world today, February 8th...

CANADA

It's snowing heavily here in Ottawa. The temperature is around -15°C . It's freezing _____. Some kids are building a big snowman in the street. Others _____ in the snow. It's great fun!

ENGLAND

It's very _____ and _____ here in London. The temperature is 8°C . There are only a few people outside. They are all holding umbrellas. Most people _____ TV or _____ board games at home. Rainy days are so boring!

