

1. Match the verbs and their definitions come up with design invent lose run out of solve suggest win

wrap

1. to give/offer an idea or a plan for someone to think over
2. to cover something by putting paper or cloth round it
3. to think of an idea or a plan to follow
4. to create a thing or process that did not exist before
5. to find an answer how to deal with something that caused difficulty or find an explanation for something
6. to defeat everyone by being the best or finish first in the competition
7. to decide how something will be made as well as the way how it will work and look
8. to use all you have, not have any left
9. to stop having something; to be defeated in a game or sport

Read the text and fill in the gaps with the missing words from the box.
(Choose the correct number of the word for each gap)

1. join, 2. them, 3. emotional, 4. easier, 5. interested, 6. difficult, 7. reading, 8. discussion, 9. willing

The Reader's Club

If you've ever been looking for of a book club, you know that choosing the titles to read can be very A_____. Finding books that teens like and, at the same time, that are good for B_____ is even more difficult. The Reader's Club Team wants to make your job C_____ by highlighting a few of the titles that have caused interesting discussions in our own teen book clubs, specifically those in grades 6-9.

Reading a book is good for mental and D_____ health, but nowadays it's tough to get a teen or preteen to read or E_____ a book club. Still, there are some brave souls who are F_____ in getting these young minds into a beneficial environment of G_____. Are you H_____ to? If yes, this is definitely the article you are I_____.

A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H	I