Rain Art

Most people would laugh if you told them they could go for a nice walk in the (0) _____ (pour) rain — without getting wet. But that idea has become reality, (1) _____ (thank) to an amazing show which allows art (2) _____ (love) to walk in falling water without getting soaked to the skin.

The art installation, titled the Rain Room, uses a 3D camera system that creates a (3) _____ (careful) designed path through the heavy rain, (4) _____ (base) on the movements of visitors.

Hannes ?och, the (5) _____ (design) of the Rain Room told CCT? News: "I think the initial idea didn't have much to do with rain; it had to do with how visitors (6) _____ (image) it would feel to be inside rain but to be (7) _____ (protect) from it."

The Rain Room (8) _____ (exhibit) has attracted thousands of visitors to the Barbican Centre in London. A permanent version of the Rain Room has opened at the Yuz Museum in Shanghai.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Lost Wallet Returned

Hunter Shamatt had just arrived in Las Vegas when he realized he had lost (0) _____ wallet. It contained $60, a $400 paycheck, his bank card and his identification card. He was very upset, but he didn't want to make a big deal of it because it (17) _____ his sister's wedding weekend. He thought he might have lost it on his Frontier flight from Omaha to Vegas, so he called the airline and reported (18) _____ missing. No luck.

After the wedding, a package arrived (19) _____ his home. It contained his wallet — completely intact — with a note (20) _____ said: "Hunter, I found this on a Frontier flight from Omaha to Vegas - row 12, under seat F. Thought you might want it back. All the (21) _____ , Todd."

And below that: "P.S. I rounded your cash up to an even $100 so you could celebrate getting your wallet back. Have Fun!!!"

It took Hunter Shamatt a few minutes to believe (22) _____ the note said. He wanted to thank the kind stranger, so he posted a picture (23) _____ the note on Facebook with a message asking (24) _____ help to find Todd. Within days, he was in contact with the man, identified in local media reports as Todd Brown of Omaha.

Shamatt wrote Brown a heartfelt thank-you:

"Sir, what you've done for me is unheard of. I (25) _____ expected to see my wallet again, let alone with 40 dollars more. Thank you so much, I've got student loans and it makes all the difference."

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Your kids can eat free if .....

Parents who give up their phones (0) _____ dinner will be rewarded with free meals for their kids at a British restaurant chain. In December, Frankie & Benny's is running its "no-phone" campaign as they (9) _____ to see more families who pay attention to each other at the dinner table. "We looked at various ways we (10) _____ encourage people to communicate with each other at the dinner table, and (11) _____ that giving families the chance to put down their phones fora(12)_____ of hours is a great opportunity to bring them closer to each other,"a Frankie and Benny's spokesperson explained.

Psychologist Susan Atkins agrees, saying: "By putting away screens parents (13) _____ the message that their children are important to them ....Parents are role models in everything that they do, so by talking to their kids (14) _____ reading and typing messages they are teaching their kids when and where technology use is appropriate."

If parents want to use the promotion, they(15)_____ put their phones in a special box before the meal begins. After dinner, the phones will (16) _____ to them, and their children's meals will be free of charge.

0) A while	B under	C during	D through
9) A are like	B have liked	C used to like	D would like
10) A make	B could	C try	D needed
11) A we've found	B we'd find	C we've founded	D we might find
12) A lots	B several	C couple	D few
13)A would get	B had left	C have saved	D are sending
14)A and	B without	C while	D instead
15) A need	B had to	C must	D may
16) A sent back	B hand	C be given up	D be returned

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS