

Family issues

Complete the sentences with the prepositions to learn about everyday issues in families:

after after on on out to to up up up

1. Unless we have a babysitter to look ____ the boys, I can't go back to work.
2. I'm fed ____ with my cousin. She is always cheating! I hate playing cards with her.
3. My mum doesn't like me staying ____ late. If I go to a party I have to be home by 10:30.
4. It would be good to know I can depend ____ my parents any time I need help.
5. You are so lazy. You surely take ____ your Aunt Susie.
6. After her mum died Jane didn't know who to turn ____.
7. She should look up ____ her grandma on her father's side because she was a nurse during World War II.
8. My sister is the only person I can rely ____.
9. Colin was brought ____ in the country by his grandparents.
10. Amy and George argued a lot and finally they split ____.

Now match the phrasal verbs (write the infinitive form) to their meaning:

go out late –

to trust someone and know that the person will be there for you – to admire or respect someone – to trust someone and expect him/her to behave in a particular way – to care for a child until it is adult –

end a relationship –

take care of sb/sth –

to be similar to an older member of your family –

to ask sb for help –

annoyed with a situation or with somebody's behaviour –