

AT THE CINEMA

1. Label the pictures with the correct words.

2. Listen to the dialogue and complete with the correct words.

Dialogue: At the cinema

Customer: Three adults and a child for the six-o'clock _____ of Murder at Midnight, please.
Cinema: Did you want to see it in _____?
Customer: No, just the _____, please?
Cinema: OK. Where would you like to sit?
Customer: Somewhere in the _____, if possible.
Cinema: How about _____ J, _____ 10 to 13.
Customer: That sounds perfect. What's the film _____, by the way?
Cinema: Well, it's a sort of _____ mystery. It's quite good, I went last week.
Customer: I saw the _____ – it looks pretty good. Do you think it'd be _____ for my 15-year-old son?
Cinema: It's _____ PG-13, so it'd be fine for him. That'll be £26 please.

Customer: Can I pay by credit card?
Cinema: Of course.
Customer: OK, _____
Cinema: Thank you.
Customer: Where are the _____, please?
Cinema: Just along the _____ on the right.
Customer: And where can I get some _____?
Cinema: There's a snack _____ just around the corner as you walk in.
Customer: Great. Thanks a lot.
Cinema: Here are your _____ Customer: Thanks.