II. Complete each sentence with one suitable word.

11. Scientists are seeking ways to_____ electricity from recyclable waste.
A. livable B. overcrowded C. generate D. infrastructure

12. The government needs to solve the pollution problems to make the city_____ .
A. livable B. overcrowded C. generate D. infrastructure

13. A lot of money has been allocated for upgrading basic_____ in the countryside.
A. livable B. overcrowded C. generate D. infrastructure

14. Pollution and heavy traffic are common problems in _____ cities.
A. livable B. overcrowded C. generate D. infrastructure

15. Newly-discovered_____ levels in one of the Daiichi Nuclear Power Plant's reactors are stunningly high.
A. sustainable B. radiation C. detect D. insoluble

16. Farmers should use _____ methods to produce clean and healthy food.
A. sustainable B. radiation C. detect D. insoluble

17. Linda is highly regarded because she is able to solve problems which seem _____.
A. sustainable B. radiation C. detect D. insoluble

18. We are carrying out some tests to_____ the cause of massive fish death.
A. sustainable B. radiation C. detect D. insoluble

19. Many researchers claim that yoga practice and physical activities can _____ people's quality of life.
A. renewable B. radiation C. improve D. insoluble

20. The most common _____ sources of energy are the wind and sun.
A. renewable B. radiation C. improve D. insoluble

LIVEWORKSHEETS