GRADE 5                    NAME: _____
SUBJECT: Grammar
TOPIC: Conjunctions

A conjunction is a word such as for, and, nor, but, or, yet and so (FANBOYS). It is used to join two words, phrases or clauses (sentences).
Example:  The goat eats grass. The goat eats paper.
        The goat eats grass, and paper.

* They contain 2 or more independent clauses.
* The clauses are joined together by a coordinating conjunction. (FANBOYS)

Independent clause , coordinating conjunction independent clause.
Don't forget the comma!

INSTRUCTIONS: Read each sentence and choose the correct conjunction.
Remember to place your coma (,) before the underlined conjunction.

1. The world is experiencing a pandemic,          all schools are closed.

2. It poured rain on the weekend,                  the meteorologist predicted no rain.

3. Please wash your hands for twenty seconds,          stay three to six feet apart from each other.

4. Many persons have died from the pandemic,                many persons have recovered.

5. The prime minister,                the minister of health know when the pandemic will be over.