

Here is the story about a dam breaks in Cranford. Put the verbs in the brackets in the correct form of verbs.

AT 10.35, LILY BALL WAS OUTSIDE HER HOUSE WITH her little brother, Leo. Leo <sup>1</sup> _____ (sit) in a toy car with his teddy bear, and Lily <sup>2</sup> _____ (push) the car. They <sup>3</sup> _____ (have) a good time. Then suddenly Lily <sup>4</sup> _____ (hear) a shout 'The dam's breaking!' Lily <sup>5</sup> _____ (grab) Leo and <sup>6</sup> _____ (run) into the house. As she <sup>7</sup> _____ (run) indoors, Leo <sup>8</sup> _____ (drop) his teddy bear. A few seconds later, the water <sup>9</sup> _____ (carry) the teddy bear and the toy car away.

Mr and Mrs Payne were in their car at 10.30. They <sup>10</sup> _____ (park) the car in front of the shops when they <sup>11</sup> _____ (see) the water. It <sup>12</sup> _____ (come) down the hill towards the town. When they <sup>13</sup> _____ (see) it, they <sup>14</sup> _____ (get) out of the car as fast as possible and <sup>15</sup> _____ (run) into the nearest shop. A minute later, the water <sup>16</sup> _____ (pick up) the car and <sup>17</sup> _____ (throw) it against a tree.
