In the UK, the USA, and Canada, people celebrate Halloween on October 31st. The word Halloween comes from "All Hallows' Eve" because it is the night before All Saints' Day, a religious holiday in some parts of the world. On this night, children dress up in costumes, put on masks, and go door to door saying "trick-or-treat" to get candy or other delicious treats. Many people decorate their homes with paper ghosts, black cats, and witches to give their houses a scary look. People also decorate their homes with jack-ó-lanterns. They carve scary faces on pumpkins and put light candles inside the pumpkins. Schoolchildren dress up and have costume and pumpkin carving contests. Adults often have costume parties and give prizes for the best costumes. In some places, both children and adults can take tours of haunted houses. In Canada and the USA, children also carry small UNICEF boxes and together with their treats, they collect money for this international children's charity.
