

Future Plans vs Future Predictions

Put the verbs in the correct form, then put the sentences in the correct box in the table below.

1. Sorry, but I can't attend the class today. I _____ (have) an exam at 15.00.
2. I have no clue what to do this evening. I _____ (watch) a movie or (go) for a walk.
3. I _____ (prepare) a meal this afternoon, but I am not sure what to cook.
4. He seems so excited; he _____ (meet) his date at 20.00.
5. Look! It's cloudy. I think it _____ (rain) soon.
6. A: can you please call and inform her?
B: ok. I _____ (do) that.
7. People _____ (have) lung diseases from smoking too much.
8. Nobody is certain about the future of technology. Who knows? we _____ (travel) in time.
9. A: what _____ (do) next week?
B: I _____ (visit) my family, but I still haven't bought the bus ticket yet.
10. Everything is getting more expensive; the economy _____ (get) worse.
11. In ten years' time, I think I _____ (be) married.
12. A: don't touch my phone.
B: alright! I _____ (not).
13. My sister is in her last week of pregnancy. I think she _____ (give) birth very soon.
14. From now on, I promise myself I _____ (practice) my English more.
15. I'm free tomorrow. We _____ (meet up) for coffee, if you want.
16. You _____ (get) the Covid-19 if you make physical contact.
17. Certainly, my future _____ (be) completely different. I hope I can achieve my dreams.

Future predictions	Future plans