10 Most Underrated Cities to Live in Europe

Watch again the part with top 4 cities from the video (6:14-9:35). Complete the extracts with the words you hear:

1. Krakow used to be the _____ of Poland. People love it for its _____ history, _____ nightlife and _____ museums. The city is very _____ city with well-developed _____, top European _____ and surprisingly high average salary around _____ dollars.
2. Sofia is the _____ city to live in Western Europe (rent for an apartment outside the city centre costs less than _____ dollars per month). You can see there a lot of famous sites _____, and the city is good for those who _____ or work _____.
3. Belgrade is a big financial centre in South-East Europe which _____ a variety of small and global businesses. _____ are allowed to buy property in the city, and it's very flexible on _____.
4. In Tbilisi citizens of 90 countries can live _____ for a year. There is a large community of _____ where you can get in touch with _____ people. The city also has several _____ spaces for you to work from.

LIVEWORKSHEETS