WORKSHEET N° 1.1

FOCUS ON GRAMMAR

WILL VS WOULD

The main difference between will and would is that would can be used in the past tense but will cannot. Also, would is commonly used to refer to a future event that may occur under specific conditions, while will is used more generally to refer to future events.

➡ EXAMPLE: will: future events

They + will + have + two + extra + meetings + this + afternoon.
